

Don't get ready, stay ready.

DISASTER & EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT SERVICES

Readiness is resilience.

Partner with RIC to lead your community or business through disaster with clarity and confidence.

Making a difference takes knowledge. Drawing on our extensive experience in the public and private sector, we're able to pinpoint the best solutions for you.

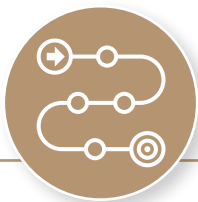

You can trust in our expertise to do right by your business and your community.

Supporting PUBLIC & PRIVATE Sector Emergency Managers

Resilience starts here.

As disasters increase in frequency, governments and businesses are feeling the pressure to have a rock-solid plan in place, but may not have all the knowledge on their team. When time and resources are scarce, let us help improve response, preparedness, mitigation, and recovery.

The RIC team has extensive experience liaising with community members to create strong plans for municipalities and governments. Our team provides a third-party perspective and facilitates discussions within your team to uncover expertise, insights, and potential gaps you never knew you had.

About Rebecca Innes Consulting

Trust. Collaboration. Resilience. Emergency preparedness is about more than tactics and strategy. It's about building strong networks of leadership and support so you can effectively manage disasters and get on the road to recovery as quickly as possible.

For nearly 20 years, Rebecca Innes has been working to improve how governments and businesses respond when disaster strikes. She founded Rebecca Innes Consulting (RIC) in 2019 with a goal of building more resilient and equitable communities and companies through her holistic, human-centred approach to emergency and crisis management.

At RIC, we believe readiness is resilience. Rebecca and the RIC team help you take a proactive approach to preparedness and empower you to lead your community or business through the complex process of disaster and crisis management with clarity and confidence.

A ready team is a resilient team.

RIC disaster planning and training gives your team the confidence to tackle challenges in the wake of disaster together, creating greater cohesion and efficiency so your community or business comes back stronger than ever.

We look at the impact on people and help plan for the future.
